Alma Mater

Where the sleepy, silver bayou
Gleams among the pines,
Watching o'er the throbbing city
Alma Mater shines

Chorus

Forward, forward Centenary –
Time and tide may fail,
But our hearts shall love thee ever –
Centenary Hail!

Like a wave the mighty city
Surges 'round they feet.
Guide it, train it, teach it wisdom
Alma Mater sweet.

Chorus:

Forward, forward Centenary –
Time and tide may fail,
But our hearts shall love thee ever –
Centenary Hail!

Green the boughs that rustle 'round thee
On they stately crest:
Greener is our mem'ry of thee -
Alma Mater blest.

Chorus:

Forward, forward Centenary –
Time and tide may fail,
But our hearts shall love thee ever –
Centenary Hail!

CENTENARY

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

August 1999

Dear Centenary Student:

Welcome to the Centenary community for the 1999-2000 academic year. Whether you're a first-year student, a transfer, or a continuing student, you are a member of the "Class of the Century."

While at Centenary, you will be challenged to meet high standards in your academic and personal life. Centenary is fortunate to be small enough to offer personal and individual attention, yet large enough to present a full range of opportunities. Our talented faculty and dedicated staff stand ready to assist you during your college career and beyond.

This 1999-2000 Student Handbook has been carefully planned and prepared as a guide to Centenary's services, resources, opportunities, and regulations. Please take advantage of the insights it offers. If you have questions, please do not hesitate to ask. Centenary is a student-centered campus and your success is at the heart of all that we do here. I look forward to seeing you on campus.

Sincerely,

Kenneth L. Schwab
President

The Vision

Since its founding in 1825, Centenary College has been committed to preservation of academic rigor, high standards of personal conduct, and an integrated development of the mind, body, and spirit of its students. Consistent with its affiliation with the United Methodist Church and recognition of the importance of supporting the development of spiritual values in its students, the college will continue to encourage a life-long dedication not only to learning but also to serving others.

In its journey toward the 21st century, the institution will continue to enhance its reputation as one of the premier student-centered liberal arts colleges in the nation - one that leaves a positive and permanent mark on the life of every graduate and focuses on the development of cultured, well-rounded individuals who will become responsible as citizens, skillful in the work place, and capable of exercising a high degree of leadership.

Our student body will be significantly diverse, comprised of a wide variety of persons from different cultures, geographical areas, and age groups. Under the guidance and mentorship of gifted faculty and staff, students will excel in high-quality programs in the liberal arts and professional studies, and they will develop on a campus characterized by rich opportunities for interaction with outstanding scholars, artists, and leaders. Increasing numbers of students will enroll in graduate and professional programs after completion of their undergraduate studies and develop as leaders in their chosen fields of endeavor.

Building on current strengths, the college will increase its standing in national publications as one of the nations' finest small colleges, elevated its position within the ranks of the top 200 math/science programs in the U.S., and enhance its status as a regional center for the performing and visual arts. The primary focus of programs will be on undergraduate education in the liberal arts and sciences, but the college will continue to offer a limited number of graduate programs that reflect the special needs of the region's population and the economy. All programs will be taught by faculty who are not only recruited for their strong academic credentials but also for their demonstrated skills as teachers, their commitment to scholarship, and their recognition of the centrality of the involvement of students - hands-on - in their own learning.

In addition to the importance of the college as a place that nurtures and sustains high-quality teaching and learning, together with the development of character, we recognize the significance of Centenary College as a good place to be. As such, the college will continue to develop both activities that are educational in nature and those that are simply fun. Already known for the beauty of its setting, the institution will also continue to develop and enhance the physical plant and campus grounds, both in support of the high quality of life to which we are committed and as a visual statement - one that reflects the excellence of what takes place every day at Centenary College.

To realize this vision, Centenary will focus its efforts over the next three to five years in four areas: increase academic quality, enhance student life, support technology, and develop superior financial management, development, and external relations resources on behalf of the college.

CENTENARY COLLEGE

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

August 1999

Dear Centenary Student:

On behalf of the Centenary Student Government Association, I would like to welcome the new students, as well as returning students, home to Centenary. We are excited to receive and welcome new students into our community and family and encourage you to challenge yourself in every opportunity that you receive.

The purpose of the Student Government Association (SGA) is to protect the interest of students and to serve the entire Centenary community. We conduct weekly meetings throughout the academic year as well as town hall meetings. SGA meetings are open to all students, and I invite you to attend and give input. We cannot serve you unless we know how best to serve you. This year, we have added two new ways to let us know how we are doing. There is a new e-mail address for the Student Government Association, sga@centenary.edu as well as a web page on the Centenary Home Page. On this home page, you'll find the names of your elected representatives, contact information, the SGA constitution, weekly minutes of our meetings and all financial information.

In this, the 175th anniversary of Centenary, we look forward to an exciting year. With a new phone system on campus, the renovation of Haynes Fitness Center, and the Gateway Project, as Centenary continues to strive to become everything it can be.

The best way to make the most of Centenary is found in balance and involvement. There is something for everyone, and if you can't find what you want, the SGA would love to help you start another club or activity – that is what we are here for. But, in our community where involvement is encouraged, we as college students, must strive to find balance in everything we do.

If you have any questions regarding the SGA, or if you need help and don't know where to ask, please stop by the SGA office on the first floor of the Moore Student Union Building. SGA office hours will be posted by the end of the first week of classes, or you can call us at (318) 869-5290.

It is an honor to serve as your president. Always know that I am more than happy to discuss any issue with anyone. Feel free to contact me by e-mail, dtaylor@centenary.edu, or by phone. I look forward to meeting you this year and I wish you all the best for a great year. Welcome Home!

Sincerely,

Dawson B. Taylor

Student Life Expectations

What it means to be a Centenary student

Centenary College has a long history of excellence in both academics and in student reputation. Each student enrolled at Centenary is expected to represent themselves and the College in a manner which characterizes respect, compassion and dignity.

Community standards have been and will continue to be set by both the College and the students. These standards are set in place so that students will be challenged educationally, socially, and developmentally to meet the expectations of society. In addition these standards are instilled with a respect for the moral and intellectual stature of student members of Centenary's academic and residential community. Centenary will challenge and respect each student and by doing so has set high standards of conduct for the community.

All students at Centenary are responsible for the community standards and policies set forth in the student handbook. It will be understood by the administration that each student has read the handbook and understands the policies and procedures outlined. Community violations and misconduct will be considered a judicial matter and will result in appropriate sanctioning. In addition, students involved in alleged criminal behavior on or off the campus can result in immediate suspension from the College. Any behavior that is determined to be a threat to the community or conflicts with the academic mission or vision statement of the college can also result in sanctioning or dismissal.

Good citizenship is a character trait that will follow each student into the world and manifest itself into both the rights and responsibilities of the individual as well as the community. The Office of Student Life as well as the Office of Residence Life and Housing will support and challenge each student to aspire to such manifestations while encouraging students to hold both their peers as well as the College responsible in a similar fashion.

Rights, Responsibilities and Freedoms

Centenary College exists for the transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students, and the general well-being of society. Free inquiry and free expression are indispensable to the attainment of these goals. As members of the academic community, students should be encouraged to develop the capacity for critical judgment and to engage in a sustained and independent search for truth. The freedom to learn depends upon appropriate opportunities and conditions in the classroom, on the campus, and in the larger community. Students should exercise their freedom with responsibility. The responsibility to secure and to respect general conditions conducive to the freedom to learn is shared by all members of the academic community.

The guidelines which follow should be understood in the context of the educational mission of the College. Included are the educational and developmental activities and practices that are encounter outside the classroom as well as within academic venues. They should be interpreted in such a manner as to give full consideration to the rights and concerns of all segments of the community, rather than to concede absolute autonomy to the student sector, when matters of proper concern to the academic community as a whole are involved.

I. Freedom of Access to Higher Education

Within the limits of its facilities, Centenary College is open to all students who are qualified according to its admission standards. The facilities and services of the College are open to all of its enrolled students.

II. In The Classroom

The professor in the classroom and in conference should encourage free discussion, inquiry, and expression. Student performance should be evaluated solely on the basis of academics and not on opinions or conduct in matters unrelated to academic standards.

A. Protection of Freedom of Expression: Students should be free to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in any course of study and to reserve judgment about matters of opinion, but they are responsible for learning the content of any course of study for which they are enrolled.

B. Protection Against Improper Academic Evaluation: Students should have protection through orderly procedure against prejudiced or capricious academic evaluation. At the same time, they are responsible for maintaining standards of academic performance established for each course in which they are enrolled.

C. Protection Against Improper Disclosure: Information about student views, beliefs, and political associations which professors acquire in the course of their work as instructors, advisors and counselors should be considered confidential. Protection against improper disclosure is a serious professional obligation. Judgments of ability and character may be provided under appropriate circumstances, normally with the knowledge or consent of the student.

III. Grade Appeal Policy

A. Introduction

1) It is the policy of Centenary College that students are responsible for fulfilling prescribed course objectives, completing stated course assignments, and adhering to stated academic standards for each course in which they are enrolled. If an instructor has evaluated a student in a professionally accepted manner, an academic appeal is not warranted. Also, it is an inappropriate recourse for questions of professional competence or academic freedoms. Only charges of arbitrariness, capriciousness, and prejudice are subject to academic appeal.
2) Based on these principles, issues eligible for appeal involve computational errors, application of course rules, adherence to syllabi, consistency and communication of evaluation standards, and expressed bias.
3) Students who believe that their final grade reflects an arbitrary or capricious academic evaluation or reflects discrimination based on race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, or disability may employ the following procedures to seek modification of such an evaluation.

B. Procedures

1) If a student receives a final grade in a course which he/she believes is unfair, the student should first contact the faculty member involved prior to the end of the drop/add period of the next academic term.
2) If the student complaint is not resolved, the student may appeal his/her grade to the department chair. It is the student's responsibility to provide a written statement of the specific grievance with all relevant documentation (syllabus, guidelines for papers, presentations, etc.) attached.
3) If the department chair is unable to resolve the grade appeal to the satisfaction of either the student or faculty member involved, or the person giving the disputed grade is the department chair, then a written appeal with all relevant documentation may be made to the Provost and Dean of the College. The Provost may make recommendations to the student or instructor and will try to find an equitable solution to the dispute.
4) All parties to the grade appeal process (student, instructor, or department chair) are to maintain strict confidentiality until the matter is resolved.
5) Any grade change must be forwarded to the Provost and Dean of the College for review and endorsement.

IV. Student Records

Transcripts of academic records should contain only information about the academic status of the student and such action by the College, as suspension or expulsion for academic or disciplinary reasons which affect the student's eligibility to register at the College. Information from counseling or disciplinary files should not be available to unauthorized persons on campus, or to any person off campus without the express consent of the student involved except under legal compulsion or in cases where the safety of persons or property is involved. No records should be kept which reflect the political activities or beliefs of students. Administrative staff and faculty should respect confidential information about students which they acquire in the course of their work.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. Students have:

1) The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day Centenary College receives a request for access. Students should submit to the registrar, dean, head of academic department, or other appropriate official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The College official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where records may be inspected, if the records are not maintained by the College official to who the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.

2) The right to request an amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the College to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write to the College official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading.

3) The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorized disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the College in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the College has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.

4) The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Centenary College to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the Office that administers FERPA is: Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 600 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20202-4605

V. Student Freedoms and Responsibilities

In student life, certain standards must be maintained if the freedom of students is to be preserved.

A. Freedom of Association: Students bring to the campus a variety of interests previously acquired and develop many new interests as members of the academic community. They should be free to organize and join those organizations which promote these interests.

1. The membership policies and actions of a student organization usually are determined by vote of only those persons who hold bona fide membership in the College community.

2. Affiliation with an extramural organization should not of itself disqualify a student organization from institutional approval.

3. Faculty advisors are required and each organization is free to choose its own advisor. Faculty advisors may advise organizations in the exercise of responsibility, but they should not have the authority to control the policy of such organizations.

4. Student organizations may be required to submit a statement of purpose, criteria for membership, rules of procedures, and a current list of officers. They should not be required to submit a membership list as a condition of institutional recognition.

5. Campus organizations, including those affiliated with an extramural organization, should be open to all students without respect to race, creed, or national origin.

B. Freedom of Inquiry and Expression

1. Students and student organizations should be free to examine and discuss all questions of interests to them, and should be free to express opinions publicly and privately. They should always be free to support causes by orderly means which do not disrupt the regular and essential operation of the College. At the same time, it should be made clear to the academic and the larger community that in their public expressions or demonstrations, students or student organizations speak only for themselves.

2. Students should be allowed to invite and hear any person of their choosing, in keeping with the educational objectives of the College. Those outlined procedures required by the College before a guest speaker is invited to appear on campus should be designed only to insure that there is an orderly scheduling of facilities and adequate preparation for the event, and that the occasion is conducted in a manner appropriate to an academic community. The College control on campus facilities should not be used as a device of censorship. It should provide for and make clear to the academic and larger community that sponsorship of guest speakers does not necessarily imply approval of, endorsement of, or agreement with the views expressed, either by the individual, sponsoring group, or institution.

C. Student Participation in College Government: As members of the academic community, students should be free, individually or collectively, to express their views on issues of institutional policy and on matters of general interest to the student body. Students should have representation on various committees of the College. The actions of the student government within the areas of its jurisdiction would be reviewed through orderly and prescribed procedures.

D. Student Publications: Student publications are a valuable aid in establishing and maintaining an atmosphere of free and responsible discussion and of intellectual exploration of the campus. They are a means of bringing student concerns to the attention of the faculty and the College authorities and of formulating student opinion on various issues on the campus and the world at large. Centenary College, a publisher of the student publications, may have to bear the legal responsibilities for the contents of the publications. In the delegation of editorial responsibility to students, the College must provide sufficient editorial freedom and financial autonomy for the student publication to maintain its integrity of purpose as a vehicle for free inquiry and free expression in the academic community. The editorial freedom of student editors and managers entail corollary responsibilities to be governed by canons of responsible journalism, such as the avoidance of libel indecency, undocumented allegations, attacks on personal integrity, and the techniques of harassment and innuendo. As safeguards for the editorial freedom of student publication the following provisions are necessary:

1. The student press and radio should be free of censorship and advance copy approval, and its editors and managers should be free to develop their own editorial policies and news coverage.

2. Editors and managers of student media should be protected from arbitrary suspension and removal because of student, faculty, administrative, or public disapproval of editorial policy or content. Only for proper and stated causes should editors and managers be subject to removal. The Media Committee is responsible for the appointment of editors or managers and paid staff and should be the agency responsible for their removal.

3. All College published and financed student publications should explicitly state on the editorial page that the opinions there expressed are not necessarily those of the College or the student body at large.

VI. Off-Campus Freedom of Students

A. Exercise of Rights of Citizenship: College students are both citizens and members of the academic community. As citizens, students should enjoy the same freedoms of speech, peaceful assembly, and right of position that other citizens enjoy, and as members of the academic community they are subject to the obligations which accrue to them by virtue of this membership. Faculty and administrative officials should insure that College powers are not employed to inhibit such intellectual and personal development to students as is often promoted by their exercise of the rights of citizenship both on and off campus.

B. College Authority and Civil Penalties: Activities of students may upon occasion result in violation of law. In such cases, College officials should apprise students of sources of legal counsel and may offer other assistance. Students who violate the law may incur penalties prescribed by civil authorities and while College authority should not be used merely to duplicate the function of general laws, College action shall not be precluded merely because the student has violated the civil statute. Only where the College interests as an academic community are distinct and clearly involved should the special approval of the College be assessed. The student who incidentally violates College regulations in the course of his/her off-campus activity, such as those relating to class attendance, should be subject to no greater penalty than would normally be imposed. College action should be independent of community pressure.

Housing Policies & Procedures

Living on campus is both a privilege and an opportunity for students. In order to have a positive community, it is necessary to define policies that effect both the College and the students. Please note that all housing policies and procedures are a part of your housing contract and therefore any violation will be considered a violation of that contract.

Residency Requirements

All full-time students are required to reside on campus during the fall and spring semesters of the academic year. Exceptions are made for those students that meet one of the criteria outlined below. In addition to the residency requirements for the academic year, students have the option to obtain Module and summer housing through the Office of Residence Life. (Housing is not available during the month of August).

Exception requests must be submitted in writing to the Office of Residence Life at least 2 weeks prior to the Housing Assignments Lottery for the applicable fall or summer term. Requests for Spring exceptions must be received prior to the beginning of pre-registration for the spring semester. Incoming students must submit exception requests prior to the deadline listed in their new student housing mailings. Approved exceptions after this deadline will be charged a $200 breach of contract fee plus a daily rate for each day after the move-in date.

Off-Campus Residential Exceptions:

1. Students, of senior classification, who are 21 years of age, or older, before the beginning of the fall semester of the academic year are eligible to seek exception to the residency requirements through the Exceptions Review Committee.
2. Students from the Shreveport/Bossier area who wish to reside, at home, with their parents or legal guardians. The student must submit their home address and letter of confirmation from the parent or legal guardian in residence at that address.
3. A specified number of Greeks (determined by the Dean of Student Life) wishing to reside in their Greek house. To receive an exception to the housing requirement, each student must submit a complete roster of all students who are approved to live in their Greek house during the applicable semester. This roster must be signed by the Fraternity President or House manager. Those approved must purchase full meal plan. Greek housing may also be occupied by students who qualify for off campus living as prescribed to those 21 or over (see #1).
4. Students who are married, divorced, or a parent.
5. Students who need special medical accommodations must submit a medical request form signed by a physician prior to the exception deadline or within two weeks of the diagnosis of a new condition.

" Exception Review Committee":

All requests for exceptions will be directed to the "Exception Review Committee." The committee membership consist of one faculty or staff member selected by the Chairperson of the Student Services Committee, one male and one female residential student appointed through RHA, a representative from the Business Office, and a representative designated from the Student Life professional staff by the Dean of Student Life. The committee will be chaired by the Director of Residence Life and Housing, who will serve as a non-voting member.

Assignments

Students may fall into one of four categories for the housing assignment process according to the categories below.

1. Squatter's Rights: Residents may retain their residential assignment for the following year by returning a signed lottery card to the Office of Residence Life prior to the published deadline.
2. Joiner's Rights: Students wishing to move to a room that is being held by "Squatter Rights" will need the signature of the "Squatter" and must be included on the "Squatters" lottery card.
3. Mover's Rights: Students who will not be retaining the same assignment for the upcoming academic year will be ranked according to class rank, GPA, and disciplinary standing. Included in the assignment information will be directions concerning the placement process, including dates and times that the student will be expected to choose a housing assignment for the upcoming academic year.
4. Single Requests: Students requesting a single room assignment will be ranked according to class, GPA and disciplinary standing. Single room assignments may not be available, and the Housing department reserves the right to place a roommate into an assigned single room at any time. When there are empty rooms in the residence halls they may be assigned as private rooms on a seniority basis at the rate of a private room. However, single occupancy is not guaranteed to any student at any time. Single occupancy applicants may be reviewed by the Director of Residence Life and Housing and granted only in conditions where space is available and the student is in good disciplinary standing with the College. Private rooms are considered an extra luxury of the students residential experience.
5. Students will be given a room contract which must be signed and returned to the Office of Residence Life within the stated period of time. Residents who do not turn in their contracts on time are not guaranteed to keep their assignments.
6. Students who sign up for housing without a roommate or whose roommates withdraw from housing will be assigned another roommate and may be moved to another room or hall.

NOTE: Students forfeit their "Squatter" and "Joiners" rights if the lottery card is not returned by the prescribed date given on the application.

Roommate Contracts

Living on campus at Centenary College will provide each student the opportunity to live with a variety of people and experience many different lifestyles. The Residence Life staff in the building are responsible for helping to create a positive living environment that begins in your room and extends to your floor. By using the Roommate Contract, honest dialogue and communication is initiated within your room and suite from the beginning. Contracts will be distributed and reviewed with your Residence Assistant and will be a constant source of referral as you and your roommate adjust to community living. This contract is critical as it will be the foundation for any mediations that the RA, Area Coordinator, or Director of Residence Life will use should problems emerge in your living environment. All students are encouraged to complete roommate contracts. First year students and their roommates are required to complete roommate contracts prior to the second week of the fall semester.

Room Changes

A room change request is first and foremost a counseling situation. Students are expected to attempt to settle their differences and continue to live together in a respectful manner. A housing "freeze" occurs at the beginning of each semester. No room or roommate changes may occur until two weeks after the beginning of classes. All changes require the approval of the Director or Assistant Director of Housing and must first be mediated by their Resident Assistant. A $20.00 room change fee will be assessed to each student making a room change. In addition, the Director of Residence Life and the Dean of Student Life have the authority to initiate, at their discretion, revocation of housing contracts, relocation of housing assignments and/or appropriate disciplinary action should a situation call for such attention. Students assigned to double rooms who end up without roommates will enter a room consolidation process. During this process they may have a new roommate placed with them or may be reassigned to a different room. The $20.00 room change fee will be waived for students moving into assigned singles and for students involved in the consolidation process.

Keys, Doors, and Lockouts

Students are responsible for all keys issued to them. Students whose keys are lost or stolen will be charged a substantial fine to cover costs associated with creating new keys and changing locks. Current key charges are $30.00 for a lost or stolen room key and $100.00 for a lost or stolen outside door key. Students must return their residence hall keys to their RAs as they check out of their room or residence hall. Keys not returned at that time will be treated as "Lost or Stolen Keys" and those students will be charged accordingly. All keys issued remain the property of Centenary College. Keys must be returned to the institution upon request, and may not be lent to persons who are not approved for access to that specific lock or facility. Employees or students who improperly lend, give away, or duplicate keys may be charged with the costs associated with changing those locks and may also face judicial sanctions.

If you lock yourself out of your room between 7 AM and 7 PM contact your RA or another RA in your building. If none of the RAs are home you may call the Department of Public Safety. Between 7 PM and 7 AM contact the RA on duty if you need to be admitted to your room. The first two times you need a door unlocked you will receive a verbal warning. Upon the third key-in and each one thereafter you will be fined $5.00 per incident.

Residential students are advised to always lock their door to their room and to never allow someone that they do not know into a residence hall. It is against college regulations to prop open a locked door or fire door. Propped exterior residence hall doors are a serious safety concern, and students seen propping these doors may be issued a campus citation by the Deparment of Public Safety and/or face residential judicial charges.

Residence Hall Closing Procedures

Residence Halls officially close at the conclusion of each academic semester and at other times designated in the official College Calendar. All students are expected to vacate the halls at these times and will not have access to their room or belongings within. Before leaving for a break, students must conform to the Health and Safety break guidelines. Suite and room doors and windows must be closed and locked, all appliances and electrical items other than answering machines must be unplugged, and lights must be turned off. Students who wish to leave any other items plugged in may appeal to the Director of Residence Life and Housing. Students who wish to remain in the halls for a college sanctioned activity must submit their intention to do so at least two weeks prior to the beginning of that break. Other students for whom leaving the halls would be a significant hardship may apply to remain in the halls over short (less than 10 days) breaks and holidays. Normal residence hall services may not be available while the halls are officially closed. During these times, all housing rules and policies are still in effect. If there is reasonable cause to believe that a resident has violated any housing policy or community standard, he or she may be required to immediately vacate campus pending a hearing. Residents will be allowed to re-enter the halls when they re-open.

Residents are required to sign up with their RA for a time to check out of their room prior to moving to a different room or moving out of the residence halls. When a resident checks out of a room, all of their belongings must be out of the room, and their area of the room must be clean and ready for future occupancy. When the last occupant of a room checks out, the beds must be fully assembled and may not be bunked, lofted, or raised above the fifth-lowest peg setting. Failure to follow these procedures will result in improper check-out fees.

Room Inspections

All students have the right to privacy in their rooms. However, on occasion the Residence Life Staff and other college officials are authorized to enter residents' rooms. Staff members may do so to respond to perceived emergency situations, public nuisance situations (a ringing alarm or odor that is disturbing others) or judicial violations, to confirm evacuation during a fire alarm or drill, to perform maintenance or facility observations or repairs, and to perform routine Health and Safety inspections. Suite hallways and bathrooms are considered public areas and may be entered by staff members during performance of their duties. Students' belongings will not be moved (other than is necessary to ensure their safety and to perform necessary maintenance functions) or searched (other than a "plain view" visual check) without a letter signed by the Dean of Student Life, a search warrant issued by the court system or by the Director of Public Safety, or the permission of a resident of that room. Search warrants issued by college officials will specify the reason for the search. If the resident is available at the time of the search, he or she may be present during the search. The residence life staff may, after posting notification at least 48 hours in advance, check a room at any time for health, safety, or maintenance reasons. Safety or policy violations observed during these inspections will be referred through the appropriate channels.

Safety and Health Measures

Fire Alarms and Safety Equipment

It is against the law and the regulations of the College to tamper with fire equipment of any kind. Falsely pulled fire alarms and other forms of tampering with fire equipment are a serious safety issue and each student should accept personal responsibility for reporting anyone who does so. Students found responsible for false alarms or other fire equipment tampering will face serious sanctions up to removal from housing or expulsion, and may also face criminal charges. All students are required to evacuate buildings during fire alarms, and may not re-enter until cleared by a Residence Life or DPS staff member. Students who do not evacuate during fire alarms or drills will be fined and may face additional judicial sanctions.

Fire Safety Regulations

The burning of any substance (other than cigarettes in approved smoking areas) is not allowed in the residence halls. Candles and incense may not be burned, and partially burned candles and/or incense are not allowed in the residence halls. Ashtrays should be emptied into trashcans only after ensuring that no embers are still warm or active. Multiple socket plugs are not allowed, and multiple-socket surge protectors should not have several high drain appliances in use simultaneously. Students in areas where circuit breakers need to be reset may be required to reduce their number of outlets or appliances in use to conform to the capacity of the electrical system. Appliances with exposed heating elements or hot surfaces (including but not limited to toaster ovens, electric skillets, fryers, and space heaters) are not allowed in the residence halls. Students may have a microwave (no more than 900 watts) and a refrigerator under 1.8 amps. Irons are allowed but may only be plugged in or used in public areas (lounges, etc.). Hallogen lights must have safety guards or screens installed, and may not be placed near any wall hanging or poster, to prevent items from landing on them and starting a fire.

Health Issues and Missed Classes

Students' rooms should be kept reasonably clean and trash should be emptied as needed. Uncovered food and spills that are not cleaned up are considered health hazards, and are not allowed. Students should report illness to their resident assistant and the campus nurse. Students missing classes should notify their professors.

Roof and Maintenance Areas

Equipment or maintenance rooms and the roof areas of all buildings and porches are off limits to all except those authorized for inspection, repair, or work reasons except in areas designated by the college as sun decks.

Room Deposit

A $60.00 room deposit is required of all residents and is retained as a general housing deposit as long as the student resides on campus. The room deposit will be refunded at the end of the last semester a student attends the College, provided all financial obligations have been met. All damage charges assessed to a student prior to that time will be billed to his/her regular account. Charges for loss or damage of equipment or defacement of any community-used area such as lounges, recreation rooms, corridors, or bathrooms may be assessed equally against the residents of the area. Occupants may be charged for damages to individual rooms in the event the vandal(s) is/are not apprehended or known to the College.

Telephone, Data, and Cable Service

The residence hall rooms are equipped with modular phone jacks and data ports. Each residence hall room is properly equipped for television cable service. Commercially available long distance and cable services may be contracted on an individual student-by-student basis. It is in violation of local, state, and federal codes for anyone to connect a cable line to a line of another subscriber to receive cable service without the expressed permission of the cable company. To do so is considered theft of services and can result in large fines and incarceration. The College may also take disciplinary action against anyone convicted of such offenses. The television in the lobby is available for residential student use.

Theft and Property Damage

The College is not responsible for the theft or damage of personal property in residence hall rooms or elsewhere on College property. All students are strongly encouraged to obtain insurance coverage for their belongings. Students should report theft and vandalism to their RA and the Department of Public Safety. Prompt reporting is an important factor in recovering stolen items.

Room Decorations and Furnishings

No furniture, including mattresses or extra furniture due to the singling of a double room, may be removed from the room without permission of the Office of Residence Life. College furniture may not be physically altered in any way. Decals and stickers should not be applied to College property. Decorations visible from public areas must be in good taste. Residents may decorate their room or suite doors, but are responsible for any damages to those surfaces.

Pets

Pets and other animals are not allowed inside any campus facility, with the exception of fish. Aquariums may not be larger than 15 gallons.

Posters, Publicity and Fund Raising:

All flyers shall be posted on bulletin boards and walls only, and the source must be clearly identified. Any banners, posters, or other publicity larger that a flyer may be posted outside of bulletin board areas so long as these are up for a period of no longer than ten (10) days. The status of listed or chartered shall allow an organization the right to post publicity (flyers and posters) on campus in compliance with the above regulations and without other restriction. Any on-campus publicity by off-campus or non-official campus organizations must be approved by the Director of Student Activities and comply with the above regulations. Any damage done to College property by the display of posters or any cleaning that needs to be done as a result of publicity materials littering the campus will be paid by the source of publicity. Publicity to be hung in the residence halls must be approved by the Director of Residence Life and Housing. Publicity should never be placed on exterior or stairwell doors without specific consent. In the event of a suspected violation by an individual or organization, any student or College official may submit a report to the Conduct Review Committee. The deciding judicial body may impose a fine of not more than $25.00 in addition to the aforementioned cleanup and repair costs. Special areas for and methods of publicizing College activities will be determined by the SGA. The Director of Student Activities must be contacted for authorization to hang banners in areas other than the residence halls. The Director of Residence Life and Housing must provide authorization for banners in or on the residence halls. All publicity must be removed by the sponsoring group within three days following the publicized event. Salespersons are not permitted to solicit on the campus without written permission from the Dean of Student Life. Students and staff should ask any solicitor for proof of written permission from the Dean of Student Life. Should a resident group want a salesperson to present or demonstrate a particular product in the residence hall lobby, the Residence Hall Council should notify the Dean of Student Life. This same procedure also covers solicitation of donations. Students desiring to sell products in order to earn money toward their education or College organizations conducting fund raising projects may apply to the Dean of Student Life for special permission to sell products.

Weight Lifting Equipment

Barbells, weight lifting equipment, and dumbbells weighing over 5 lbs. each are not allowed in the residence halls. Weight equipment is available in the fitness center.

Escort and Guest Policies

Opposite sex guests must be escorted by a resident in all areas of the residence halls except the main lounges. Students are responsible for the behavior of their guests and may be held accountable in campus judicial proceedings.

Visitation Policy

Opposite Sex Visitation:

Visitation hours are 11:00 AM to 3:00 AM daily. Students may request to be assigned to a room with no opposite sex visitation prior to the published assignment deadline.

Lobby Visitation:

Students are allowed to have guests of the opposite sex in their residence hall lobby twenty-four hours a day. After the official visitation hours, a guest in a lobby must be in the company of his/her host(ess). Overnight sleeping in the lobby area is prohibited.

Overnight Guests:

Students may have overnight guests of the same sex.

1. All overnight guests, even one staying in the room of the host or hostess, must be registered with the Office of Residence Life and Housing.
2. All guests must comply with our residence and campus regulations; the student host or hostess will be responsible for any infraction by his/her guest(s).
3. Guests may stay on campus for no more that three nights. Exceptions must be approved in writing by both the Director of Residence Life and the host or hostess's roommate.

Quiet Hours

Quiet Hours are in effect from 9:00 PM to 9:00 AM each weeknight and from midnight to 10:00 AM on weekends. Hall Councils may modify the quiet hours of their building subject to approval by their Area Coordinator. Courtesy hours are in effect at all times, and students must reduce excessive noise that disturbs others. Students who are inconvenienced by noise should make a request to the offenders. If noise continues, students should report it to a resident assistant or file a communication report. Communication report forms are available from any resident assistant, the Office of Residence Life or Office of Student Life. Residence Halls will observe 24 hour quiet time beginning at 10:00 a.m. the day before Finals Week. Hall Councils may approve a lifting of the quiet hours for a maximum of two (2) hours each day with the approval of their Area Coordinator. Designated hours will be posted in each residence hall. A student who violates quiet hours is subject to a minimum $25.00 fine per incident. The quiet hours policy extends through the last scheduled final exam.

Community Standards

As a community, particularly a residential community, there are certain standards that must be observed to provide an atmosphere conducive to learning. Many standards have been set by the College and others will be set in the residence halls through Hall Council, Community Contracts and Roommate contracts. Each student is responsible to the community for upholding all standards. Outlined below are a few expectations that must be observed in order for each student to receive the educational experience that Centenary offers.

Alcohol and Other Drugs

Use, possession, or distribution of alcoholic beverages in or on any College property is prohibited. According to Louisiana law, it is unlawful for anyone under the age of 21 to purchase or have public possession of any alcoholic beverage. It is also unlawful to furnish alcohol to someone underage or obviously inebriated. All events sponsored by campus organizations must comply with the guidelines established by the Office of Student Life.

Use, possession, or distribution of drug paraphernalia and mind-altering drugs, except as expressly permitted by law, is also prohibited. Louisiana law provides for increased penalties for individuals convicted of felony possession or distribution of drugs to students and/or on school grounds including Centenary College property.

For the purposes of campus judicial proceedings, possession is defined as being present in a room or area where there are drugs, alcohol or paraphernalia. Students with alcohol, drugs or paraphernalia in their assigned residence hall room are also considered as being in possession.

Drug-free Schools and Community Act of 1989:

Centenary College complies with the Drug-free Schools and Community Act of 1989 by publishing information regarding institutional policy and sanctions as well as federal, state and city laws concerning the use of alcohol and illicit drugs in Appendix A of the Student Handbook. Information regarding the health risks associated with the use of alcohol and illicit drugs and information on educational, counseling, and treatment resources is included in the sections of the Student Handbook entitled "Student Resources" and "Off Campus Resources." Centenary College guarantees procedural fairness in disciplinary proceedings to any student accused of violating alcohol and other drug policies or laws through referral to the Conduct Review committee. Students found responsible for violating these policies may face a range of sanctions including required educational activities, removal from housing, suspension and expulsion. Campus disciplinary action does not preclude criminal charges and sanctions.

The Centenary College Counseling Center will provide free confidential counseling for any student who is concerned about his or her drug or alcohol usage. The Counseling Center phone number is 869-5424. It is located at 2910 Centenary Blvd.

Civil and Criminal Law

Students should refrain from conduct which violates city, state, and/or federal laws. Suspected violations of criminal codes may be referred to the Centenary College Department of Public Safety (DPS) and/or any other appropriate law enforcement agency. Criminal complaints filed against a student for on or off campus behavior may result in action through the college judicial system.

Computer Use Policy (Revised April 1999)

This policy is intended to define authorized use and ensure security of Centenary College facilities and resources. This includes such information technology as hardware, software, e-mail, and home pages. Administration of this policy, technology services, electronic information security, and usage resides with the Information Technology Services (ITS) Department. Authorizations required in this policy come from the Chief Information Officer (CIO) through the ITS Director. ITS provides service in the following priorities: 1) emergencies (all other change must be systematically planned, researched, and implemented), 2) institution-wide projects, 3) departmental needs, and 4) individual requirements.

Conditions of Usage. Usage is limited to Centenary faculty, staff, and students, unless specifically authorized by the CIO. In using Centenary facilities and resources, users agree to hold harmless Centenary College, its staff, and affiliates for dutiful enforcement of the computer use policy. Notification of policy change is posted on bulletin boards of large labs and in e-mail. User files may be deleted where storage space becomes insufficient. Accounts may be removed if there is no log-on for six months. ITS will make an effort to contact users before such deletions or removals and provide archival copies. Accounts of users who are no longer associated with Centenary will be removed. Where there is threat or risk to facilities or resources then without prior notification ITS may need to restrict users or reconfigure technology. Where possible, information adversely affected will be reloaded from tape backup.

Home Pages. Authorization requests are directed to ITS and must include: 1) user signature, 2) printed name, 3) log-in, 4) request date, 5) signature of department head for staff or faculty, and 6) signature of a sponsoring full-time faculty member for students.

Home pages must include 1) name of the department if a departmental home page, 2) link back to the college, 3) name and e-mail address of the home page holder/author, 4) date of last update, 5) URL, and 6) a disclaimer if an individual's home page, stating:

"The views and opinions expressed in this page are strictly those of the author and have not been approved by Centenary College of Louisiana."

Home pages must be kept current and thoughtfully orient visitors who may enter through an outside link without passing through a Centenary institutional page. Home pages must be legal; for example, information belonging to others may not be included without owner permission.

Violation. Violation of this policy occurs when a student's usage poses a clear and present danger to either information, security, technology, or usage. (Indicated, for example, by system-logged attempts of the student trying to hack into the system.) Information violations include unauthorized attempts to access, change, copy, delete, destroy, print, or read information restricted to the institution, a person, or a group. Security violations include attempts to circumvent data protection, or to destroy, tamper with, or uncover security protection. Technology violations include attempts to destroy, endanger, remove, tamper, vandalize, or, without authorization, use technology. Usage violation is violation of network traffic affected by the use of games, recreational programs, pictures, or sound not related to course work. Usage must be shared with others in a manner consistent with Centenary's educational mission. College facilities and resources cannot be used for illegal display or broadcast of libelous, fraudulent, defamatory, harassing, obscene, threatening, or prank material, or if illegal, to make other transmission, or to violate copyright or licensing agreements.

Penalties. Should a student violate this policy, usage may be revoked or conditioned on a signed written agreement to comply with the policy or other agreement. Violation of policies, agreements, or law may result in disciplinary proceedings, dismissal, and other penalties.

Failure to Cooperate

Students must comply with official college policies and cooperate with the requests of College officials (faculty, administration, resident staff, and Residence Hall Councils) in the performance of their duties. Students who do not attend scheduled judicial hearings and sanction meetings or who do not complete assigned judicial sanctions on time are also considered in violation of this policy and may be assigned additional sanctions. Administrative sanctions may be appealed to the Conduct Review Board.

False Information

Willfully and knowingly furnishing false information to the College or a College official, including the Residence Hall Staff, is prohibited.

Fire Alarms and Fire Safety Equipment

Giving a false alarm of fire or willfully and knowingly tampering with fire safety equipment is in violation of campus policy and state law. Centenary College considers these violations to be very serious as they could result in the loss of human life. Individuals found to be guilty of these violations face disciplinary action and/or criminal prosecution.

Firearms, Explosives and Weapons

Centenary College is a Firearm Free Zone. Louisiana law prohibits students and nonstudents from carrying a firearm or dangerous weapon on school property or at a school sponsored function, except as enumerated in Louisiana Revised Statute 14:95.2. "Dangerous weapons" are defined by law as any gas, liquid, or other substance or instrumentality which if used is calculated or likely to produce death or great bodily harm. Students should be aware that switch blades, spring knives, bows and arrows, throwing stars, and nunchuks are included in this definition of dangerous weapons. Violations of the law may result not only in disciplinary action but also in criminal prosecution.

In order to provide a safe environment that is conducive to learning, Centenary College has established a broader weapons policy. Use, possession, or distribution of any weapon, incendiary device, or explosive without specific authorization is prohibited in or on any College owned property and at any College sponsored activity. Centenary College definition of weapons includes not only those prohibited by state law but also clubs, air rifles, BB and pellet guns, knives (other than small cooking and pocket knives), slingshots, and paintball guns and ammunition. Items such as firecrackers, bottle rockets and the like are considered "explosives." Water guns and balloons may not be used in the residence halls. Violations of these policies will result in disciplinary action.

Hazing

Hazing in any form (physical or emotional), on or off campus, by an individual, group of individuals, or campus organization is strictly prohibited. Centenary College defines hazing as any activity or function that is demeaning or embarrassing to an individual or group of individuals. Hazing or the use of any method of initiation into a fraternal organization that is likely to cause bodily danger or physical punishment is also against the law.

Honor Code

Students must adhere to the Honor Code of Centenary College. (see Honor Court Constitution and Guidelines for the Honor System for more details)

Inappropriate Conduct

Harassing behavior and conduct that leads to embarrassment or indignity of others are not permitted while on College property or at College-sponsored activities. Students may not dress in a manner that is offensive or disruptive. Disrespect toward college officials (including residence hall staff) is not permitted.

Misuse of College Materials

Students may not forge, alter, or otherwise misuse College documents, records, identification and other materials, records, access codes, computer passwords or computer software.

Copyright And Compliance Policy

The unauthorized copying of any software licensed to Centenary College or protected by copyright constitutes theft and is thus both unethical and ILLEGAL. Failure to observe software copyrights and/or license agreements may not only result in disciplinary action by this institution but also severs penalties as a result of legal action by the copyright owner against the person(s) violating this policy.

Centenary College prohibits the unauthorized copying of software, including programs, applications, data bases, and code, by students, faculty, and staff of this institution, as well as the use of any college-owned computing resource for unauthorized commercial purposes.

Users of such agree to comply with the provisions of this policy and understand that their disregard will subject abusers to prompt disciplinary action by the college and other possible penalties prescribed under the law.

Misuse of Property

Misuse of property is defined as theft of, damage to, or illegal possession of property belonging to or administered by the College, a member of the College community, or any campus visitor. Littering, vandalism, and other acts which permanently or temporarily deface or destroy College buildings and/or grounds also violate this policy.

Obstruction of Proceedings or Activities

Individuals may not obstruct, disrupt, or hinder teaching, administration, disciplinary proceedings or other College activities, including public service functions or other authorized activities on College property.

Organizations

All formally recognized Organizations must have a Constitution approved by the Student Government Association and must abide by all College, State, and Federal policies, procedures and laws.

Physical Abuse

Physical abuse, the threat of physical abuse, and conduct which threatens or endangers the health, safety, or well-being of any person is illegal and is not tolerated on College-owned property or at Centenary sponsored or supervised functions. Threatening conduct includes not only verbal threats but also threatening behavior, gestures, pictures, etc. Students should report any incident of physical abuse or the threat of physical abuse, regardless of whether or not they are the victim, to the Department of Public Safety and to the appropriate RA in order that measures can be taken to protect the victim. Victims are encouraged to seek counseling at the Centenary College Counseling center or to utilize one of the other services listed under "Off Campus Resources."

Preparation Week

The college has set aside the week before final exams in both the spring and fall semesters as a special time to review academic work and prepare for final exams. It is designated as Preparation Week. The following policy and requirements are designed to help students concentrate on their studies by reducing the usual multitude of college activities that demand time and attention. As of 8:00 a.m. on the first day of Preparation Week, no papers, tests or additional work (beyond completion of courses) may be assigned. Lab tests may be given during Preparation Week. Class assignments made earlier in the semester may be given during Preparation Week.

As of 8:00 a.m. the 4th day of Preparation Week and continuing through exam week, no college-sponsored or affiliated groups may hold meetings or programs that involve students and/or require student attendance. The Conduct Review Committee acting on official business may meet at this time. On the Saturday of Preparation Week, from 6:00 p.m. to 12:00 midnight, there will be suspension of these requirements allowing students and their organizations opportunities for recreational activities. At midnight, Preparation Week requirements resume and continue through exam week. The Student Services Committee may not consider petitions for exceptions to policies governing Preparation Week.

Public Expression

Students and approved organizations have the right to publicly assemble and express themselves provided they abide by all College, State, and Federal policies, procedures, and laws.

Residential/Housing Policies

All residential and commuter students are responsible for knowing and abiding by all housing policies while in residential facilities. Residential students are required to pay residence hall dues or fines on time and to attend all scheduled hall and floor meetings.

Sexual Assault

A survey of college-aged women across the United States found that one in four had been the victim of rape or attempted rape. Various studies have shown that the majority of sexual assaults are committed by someone known to the victim. In response to these alarming statistics Centenary College has implemented various educational programs regarding sexual assault. Sexual assault of any type will not be tolerated in the Centenary College Community. Under Louisiana law there are four basic categories of sexual assault. The first is rape, which is defined as anal or vaginal intercourse committed without the person's lawful consent. Students should be aware that intoxicated persons who are not able to understand the nature of the act are not capable of giving lawful consent. The second category of sexual assault is sexual battery. Sexual battery is defined as the touching of the anus or genitals of the victim by the offender using any instrumentality or any part of the body of the offender or vice versa without the consent of the victim. In general terms sexual battery occurs when a person touches another in an intimate area without their consent. Oral sexual battery is the third category. Oral sexual battery is when an offender compels the victim (by placing the victim in fear of receiving bodily harm) to submit to the touching of the anus or genitals of the victim by the offender using the mouth or tongue of the offender or vice versa. The final category of sexual assault is intentional exposure to the AIDS virus. For the purposes of this section this occurs when a person intentionally exposes another to the AIDS virus through sexual contact without their knowing and lawful consent. Within these basic categories there are various types of the offense such as aggravated rape, forcible rape, simple rape, etc. which are determined by such factors as the degree of physical violence involved in the crime, the age of the victim and the mental capacity of the victim. Dating or knowing the victim is not a legal defense for sexual assault. For anyone convicted of rape, sexual battery or oral sexual battery the penalty required by Louisiana law is imprisonment without benefit of parole, probation or suspension of sentence. The length of imprisonment and whether or not it is at hard labor depends on the offense. A chart in Appendix A lists the different types of sexual assault and the corresponding penalty.

If you are the victim of a sexual assault, please get help quickly. If the offense occurred on campus you may contact the Department of Public Safety or, if off campus, the city police or sheriff's department. Filing a report at the time of the crime will help protect you and others from further victimization, help apprehend the assailant and maintain your future options regarding criminal prosecution, college disciplinary action and/or civil action against the perpetrator.

If you do not wish to report the crime to the police you should still seek assistance from the College Counseling Center, Residence Life staff, or other counseling programs which are listed in the section of the Student Handbook entitled "Off-Campus Resources." Centenary College personnel from Residence Life, the Dean of Students Office, the Counseling Center and the Department of Public Safety are available to assist you in any manner possible including arranging for a change in residence.

If you are attacked you should not touch anything, change your clothing, shower or douche to prevent any evidence from being destroyed. You will not be required to press charges or go to the hospital, but will have the option to do so. A law enforcement officer can take your statement regarding what transpired and can make arrangements for you to go to the hospital. If you choose to go to the hospital you will first be treated for any injuries. Hospital personnel will then follow a special rape protocol, which includes the collection of evidence, testing for sexually transmitted disease and the option of receiving a post-rape contraceptive.

Smoking Policy

Smoking is not permitted in the administrative and academic facilities, Haynes Gym, the library, cafeteria, Sexton Residence Hall, Hardin Residence Hall, Rotary Suites, the Student Union Building, or the Gold Dome. Smoking is permitted in the designated areas of the Physical Plant.

James And Cline Residence Halls

Smoking is allowed in individual resident rooms only if the roommate and all suitemates agree to allow smoking. Each of these halls may vote to approve smoking in one enclosed lounge.

Sports/Recreation Policy

Golf- Playing or practicing golf is not allowed on campus due to the potential of injury to bystanders and the possibility of damaging college grounds and property.

Frisbee- Throwing a Frisbee on campus or playing Frisbee golf is permitted providing care is taken with pedestrians in the area.

Roller Blades/Skates- Not permitted inside any facility or on any tennis courts.

Skate Boards- Not permitted on campus.

NOTE: Sports of any type are prohibited in the residence halls.

Unauthorized Entry

Unauthorized entry into or use of any College facility or property is a violation of campus policy.

Judicial Affairs

In developing responsible student conduct, disciplinary proceedings play a substantial role secondary to example, counseling, guidance, and admonition. At the same time, the College has a duty and the corollary disciplinary powers to protect its educational purpose through the setting of standards of scholarships and conduct for the student and through the regulation for the use of College facilities. In the exceptional circumstances when the preferred means fails to resolve problems of student conduct, proper procedural safeguards should be observed to protect the student from unfair imposition of serious penalties. The administration of discipline should guarantee procedural fairness to an accused student. Practices in disciplinary cases may vary in formality with the gravity of the offense and the sanctions which may be applied. The jurisdictions of student judicial bodies, the disciplinary responsibilities of College officials and the regular disciplinary procedures, including the student's right to appeal a decision, are clearly formulated and appear in this publication. Minor penalties may be assessed informally under prescribed procedures. Centenary College is dedicated to the proposition that personal responsibility is one of several characteristics necessary to a college learning experience. It is anticipated that the majority of the students, when told of the expectations of the College, will choose to abide by them. Inevitably, however, there will be those students who choose to do otherwise. In order to insure that due process is afforded those who choose to act contrary to these expectations, the College has established a judicial system Technical aspects of student's rights, freedoms and responsibilities, are covered in the statement by that name.

Role of the Honor Court

The Honor Court is responsible for hearing cases of suspected academic misconduct. Technical aspects of the Honor Court and its procedures are stated in its constitution. Suspected violations of the Code are referred to one of the Justices or one of the faculty advisors.

Role of the Judicial Referral Board

The Judicial Referral Board is made up of a member of the Dean of Student Life professional staff, the Chairperson of the Judicial Board and Chairperson of the Conduct Review Committee. An alternate for each of these persons will be chosen so that he/she may act in the absence of the primary officer. The Chairperson of the Judicial Referral Board is the Chairperson of the Conduct Review Committee. The Judicial Referral Board is responsible for the referral of cases of alleged student misconduct to the Residence Hall Councils, the Judicial Board, or the Conduct Review Committee. Summer discipline cases will be heard by an ad hoc committee appointed by the Chairperson of the Conduct Review Committee. Appeals should be made to the Conduct Review Committee.

Role of the Hall Councils

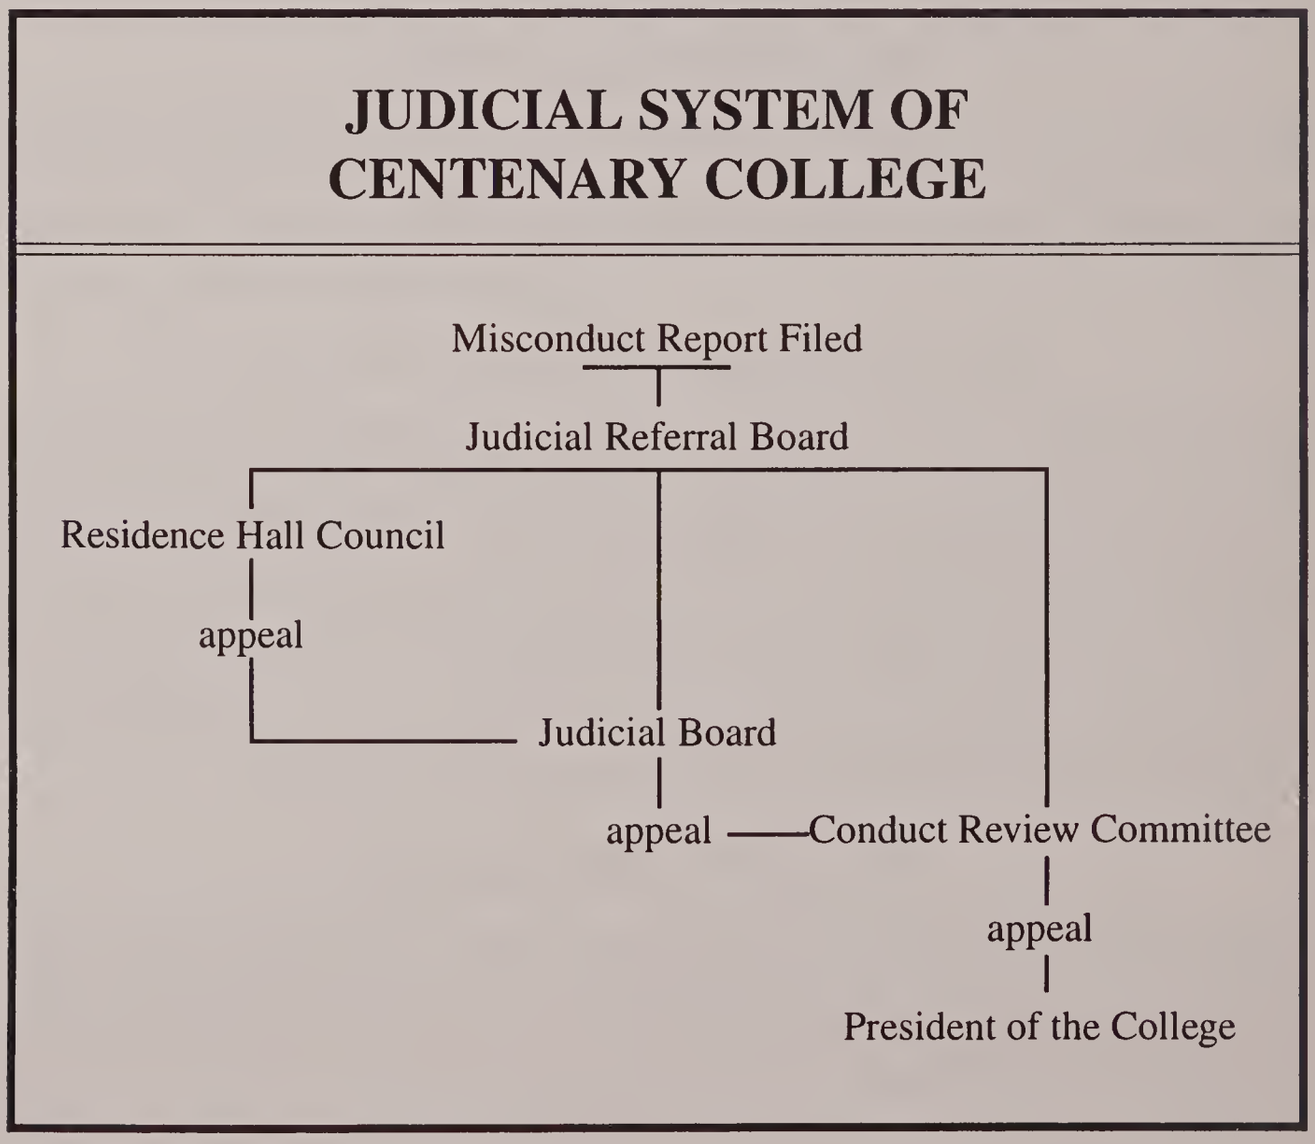
Each residence facility elects, from among its residents, representatives to serve on the Hall Council. The Judicial Referral Board may elect to refer suspected misconduct within the facility to the Hall Council for review and action. Appeals to the Hall Council decision are sent to the Judicial Board.

Role of the Judicial Board

The Judicial Board is responsible for hearing and acting upon cases referred to the group by the Judicial Referral Board and which involve specific areas of conduct for which any student may be subject to disciplinary action and for hearing and acting upon appeals to cases heard by a Residence Hall Council. Technical aspects of the Judicial Board and its procedures are stated in the Student Government Association and Judicial Board Constitutions. In the event a student whose case was heard by the Judicial Board is dissatisfied with the decision of the Board, he or she may appeal the decision to the Conduct Review Committee.

Role of the Conduct Review Committee

The duties of the Conduct Review Committee include considering and deciding upon all cases of misconduct referred by the Judicial Referral Board. Allowable penalties include suspension and expulsion. The committee also decides upon appeals resulting from other disciplinary action. If a student questions the fairness of disciplinary action taken against him by a judicial body, he or she should be granted, on request, the privilege of a hearing before this Committee. Technical aspects of the Conduct Review Committee and its procedures are stated in its guidelines. In the event a student is dissatisfied with a decision of the Committee, he or she may appeal the decision to the President of the College.



Role of the President of the College

The President is included in the due process procedure for students who have violated behavioral policies of the College. He/she is available as a "last" on-campus source of appeal from a decision or review of the Conduct Review Committee. Also inherent in the office of the President is the obligation to take whatever measures may be necessary to protect the well-being and integrity of the College and its members. This obligation is reserved for emergency circumstances only. Nothing herein contained shall be regarded as detracting from the traditional plenary powers of the President of the College and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the President of the College may on his/her own initiative and at his/her own discretion immediately and without any procedural requirements whatsoever suspend or expel the student, or otherwise suspend or terminate the student's right to be present on the campus or to attend classes. Such action is subject to review by the Conduct Review Committee, but the status of the student, pending final action, shall remain that in which the student has been placed by the President.

CONDUCT REVIEW COMMITTEE

PURPOSES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. A primary function of the committee is to consider and decide upon all cases involving non-academic misconduct referred to it by the Judicial Referral Board.
2. The committee also decides upon appeals resulting from other disciplinary action, including that of the Honor Court. If the student questions the fairness of a disciplinary action taken against her/him by a Dean or a student judicial body, he/she should be granted, on request, the privilege of a hearing before this committee.
3. At the request of the Executive Council of SGA, the committee will rule upon the constitutionality of actions taken by the Student Government Association
4. Furthermore, the committee should stay informed about disciplinary problems and make recommendations to judicial bodies and members of the administration charged with disciplinary responsibilities.

1. The committee shall be composed of seven voting members (two faculty members, one staff member, four student members and a faculty member shall serve as chair). Student members shall not hold any elected office to the Student Government Association, membership on the Judicial Board, or membership on the Centenary Honor Court. The chairperson should have a minimum of one year's previous service on the committee. The Dean of Student Life shall be an ex-officio member of the committee without vote, and shall function as its executive officer ... that is, charged with the responsibility of enforcing the decision of the committee.
2. The two voting faculty members of the committee are recommended by the Faculty Coordinating Committee and appointed by the President for terms of one academic year. Whenever possible, for purposes of continuity, faculty members will serve more than one term.
3. The four voting student members, one representing each class, are nominated by a majority vote of the Student Senate, subject to the approval of the President of the College.

4. The staff member of the committee shall be appointed by the President of the College.
5. The composition of the committee during the summer will be determined by the committee at its May meeting. The chairperson of the committee will call a meeting of the committee in the early part of May to determine who will be available for summer meetings, if needed.
6. Whenever possible, appointments to this committee are made with due consideration for the principle of separation of power as defined in the SGA Constitution.

Procedural Rules

1. Four student members, two faculty members, and the staff member must be present in order for the committee to make a decision unless the accused waives his or her rights to the full committee being present. A minimum of five members of the committee must be present to hear a case.
2. The committee will meet in regular session once each semester to discuss procedure and campus disciplinary problems.
3. The committee chairperson or the President of Centenary College can call a committee meeting at any time either by verbal or written notice.
4. The agenda for the meeting will not be disclosed to the members in advance. Prior to each hearing, the chairperson shall ask committee members if they have been approached prior to the hearing by representatives of either side (accused or accuser) and to what extent. Persistent or inappropriate contact prior to a hearing may result in an additional violation under Obstruction of Proceedings.
5. The proceedings of the meeting are held in strict confidence.
6. The chairperson of the committee will request that two sets of minutes be prepared by a faculty/staff representative. One set of minutes will be kept in the file of the committee secretary, the other in the Office of the President of Centenary College.
7. No member of the committee who is interested in a particular case in any way other than his or her official function as a member of the Committee shall sit in judgement during the proceedings.
8. The committee should confirm that the accused has received in writing all charges brought against him/her and has had sufficient time to prepare a defense (five days minimum). The accused and the accuser may present any evidence that the committee deems pertinent and relevant to the case.
9. Both the student who is accused and the student who makes the accusation have the right to be assisted in the case by a Centenary College faculty or administrative advisor of their choice.
10. The burden of proof rests upon the persons bringing the charge.
11. The accused shall be given the opportunity to testify and present evidence and witnesses. In appeals from decisions by the Honor Court, the Honor Court will be the accuser and will be bound by provisions of Article 7 of the Honor Court. In all other cases he or she shall have an opportunity to hear and question adverse witnesses. In no case shall the committee consider statements against him or her unless he or she has been advised of their content and of the names of those who made them, and unless he or she has been given an opportunity to rebut unfavorable inferences which might otherwise be drawn.

12. (a) All members of the committee have the right to question the accused, the accuser, and the witnesses.

    (b) The accused has the right to question the accuser and witnesses.

    (c) The accused, as well as the accuser, has the right to remain in the room as long as the case is being heard and until the committee is ready to deliberate, or until the committee considers another (separate) case.

13. (a) The decision of the committee shall be based solely upon matters considered by the committee at the hearing.

    (b) The committee may dismiss charges, or may assess penalties ranging from warnings through expulsion.

    (c) The chairperson communicates the decision to the accused. A letter of confirmation follows.

14. The chairperson will prepare six (6) letters of response that reflect the final decision of the committee - one for the accused, one kept in the files of the chairperson, one each in the offices of the President of the College and the Dean of the College (Provost), and two in the office of the Dean of Student Life.

15. For the Conduct Review Committee to consider an appeal, the student must file such an appeal in writing with the committee chairperson within one week after the decision has been rendered by a lower body. (Appeals of decisions of the Honor Court must be made to the Provost and Dean of the College in accordance with Article X of the Honor Court Constitution.)

16. The decision of the Conduct Review Committee is usually considered final, however, decisions (other than Honor Court appeals) are appealable to the President of the College, or ultimately to the Board of Trustees.

17. Nothing herein shall be regarded as detracting from the President's powers as set forth in the "Statement on Student Rights and Freedoms" as it appears in the Student Handbook.

Procedure for Establishing and Modifying Expectations for Students

Centenary College has established a channel of communication through which students should proceed in order to either establish or modify the expectations the College holds for them. The channel for modification goes through the Student Senate to the Student Services Committee. From this committee the channel continues through the Dean of Student Life to the Administrative Council and the President of the College. Matters concerning the faculty will be reviewed by the Faculty Senate with appropriate action referred to the Administrative Council. The diagram on the following page depicts the channels of communication.

Role of the Student Government Association

Any student who believes the expectations which Centenary College holds for him/her are unrealistic may approach the Student Senate in person or through a senator and express his/her convictions. If successful, he/she may engage the cooperation of the Senate in presenting his/her aims to the Student Services Committee. Additionally, the Student Senate may bring before the Student Services Committee, without outside suggestion, such additions or modifications of Centenary College expectations as it may deem appropriate. Technical aspects of the Student Senate and its procedures are stated in its constitution and bylaws.

Role of the Student Services Committee

It is the role of the Student Services Committee to receive all proposed additions and modifications to the expectations Centenary College holds for its students, to review the contents of these proposals, and to develop and present recommendations concerning such proposals to the Administrative Council and the President of the College after review by the Dean of Student Life. Faculty members of the Committee may share and/or solicit input from the faculty as needed. In the event the Administrative Council or the President of the College does not approve a proposal from the Student Services Committee, it becomes the responsibility of the Student Services Committee to accept the response as final or to negotiate directly with them until a proposal is submitted which meets their approval.

Role of the Faculty

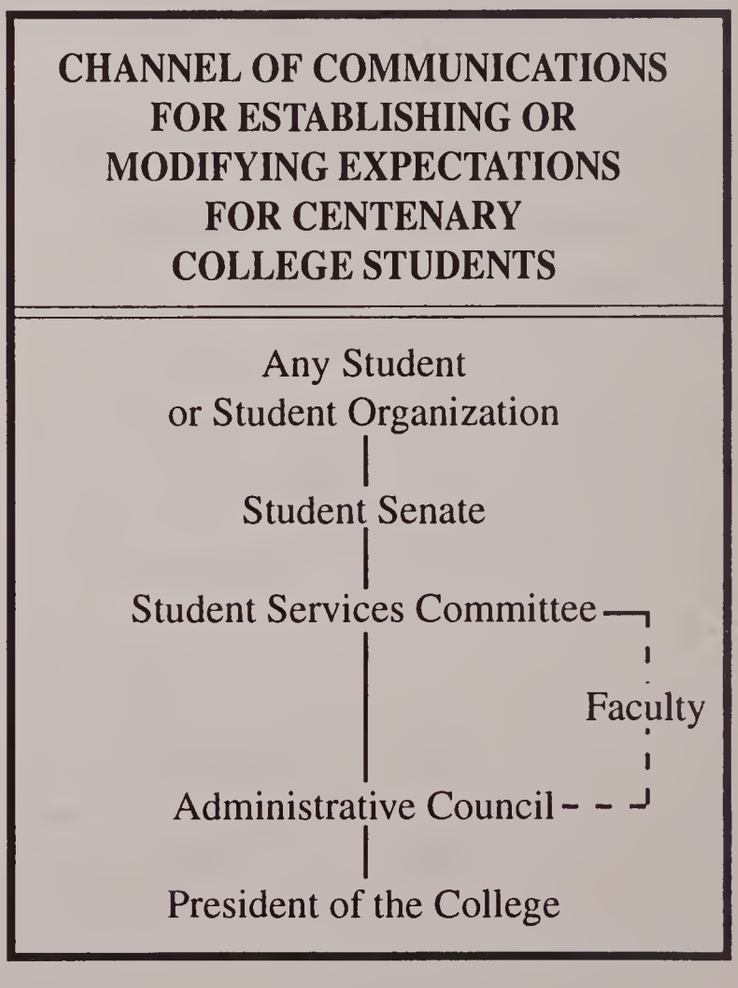
The faculty representatives of the Student Services Committee, at their discretion, may make periodic reports of Committee business to the entire faculty. A faculty vote is only required when specific proposals directly relate to the defined role of the faculty.

Role of the Administrative Council

The Administrative Council Members act as a "final" review of proposals and recommendations from the Student Services Committee and advise the President as to content and impact on the College and College Community.

Role of the President

The President of the College, after a review of each proposal submitted to him/her, will make a decision regarding the acceptability of that proposal. Traditionally, the President does not establish rules and regulations governing student life on campus. Rather, he/she more often acts as a reviewing agent or authority, rarely using his/her veto power. In this role, he/she should understand and interpret the points of view of students, faculty, and Board of Trustees, and with sound counsel aid them in establishing and maintaining a program of student life that works for the benefit of the entire College community. His/her decisions are communicated to the chairperson of the Student Services Committee who will in turn notify all parties.



SEXUAL HARASSMENT

CENTENARY COLLEGE POLICY

I-93R (5/24/94)

Centenary College seeks to cultivate a spirit of community in which each individual may participate without fear of intimidation. The College does not tolerate discrimination in any form.* All employees and students are expected to avoid any action or conduct which might be construed as sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is defined as follows:

Unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a requirement of employment or participation in an academic program or activity, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for employment or academic decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working, academic or campus environment.

Any behavior deemed to be sexual harassment by a member of the staff or faculty may be reported directly to the aggrieved party's supervisor (immediate or higher); a student shall report to the Dean of Student Life. (Hereafter, the individual who receives the information from the complainant will be referred to as the facilitator.) After consultation with the facilitator, the matter of alleged harassment may be pursued further following the sequence outlined below. However, upon the request of the complainant, this process may be terminated at any step, whereupon all documentation would be destroyed. A fair process shall be observed in which the rights of both the complainant and the accused are respected. The investigation of the complaint will proceed as follows:

1. To encourage that the issue be resolved informally, a meeting of the facilitator, the complainant, the complainant's advocate (if so desired by the complainant), the accused and the accused advocate (if so desired) shall be called by the facilitator who shall encourage open discussion, in which both parties involved in the complaint may hear a description of the situation from the other's point of view in an effort to resolve the complaint. This meeting shall remain confidential without documentation and is an option to the complainant initiating a formal complaint.
2. Should the complaint not be resolved informally, the complainant may formalize the complaint; a written and signed complaint should be filed with the appropriate official within one (1) calendar year, as follows:
    - a. If the accused is a student, a "Report of Suspected Student Misconduct" shall be filed with the Dean of Student Life, who shall, in turn, refer the case to the Judicial Referral Board for review. The Judicial Referral Board, responsible for the referral of cases of alleged student misconduct, will refer the complaint to the Conduct Review Committee. Appeals to the Conduct Review Committee are referred to the President of the College.
    - b. If the accused is a faculty member, the complaint shall be filed with the Provost and Dean of the College, who shall forward the complaint to the Personnel Committee, which shall make a recommendation for action to the Provost. Decisions of the Provost may be appealed to the President of the College.
    - c. If the accused is a staff member, then a complaint shall be filed with his or her immediate (or higher) supervisor, who shall refer the complaint to the Vice-President of Finance and Administration. Appeals to decisions of the supervisor and Vice-President of Finance and Administration should be made to the President of the College.

d. If the accused is a member of the senior administration, then the complaint shall be filed with the President of the College. If the complaint is against the President, it shall be filed with the Provost. Any such complaints shall be referred to the Chairman of the Board.

3. When a violation of College regulations and policies has occurred, action through the investigative process may be the best remedy. Therefore, action may include, but is not limited to, the following: no formal action taken, a warning, documentation in the individual's permanent personnel record, or dismissal of the student or employee. All paperwork associated with investigation of the complaint shall be destroyed after a period of six months unless there is a judgment of guilty. In such cases, records relating to the case shall be maintained in a confidential file in the Office of the President.
4. The institution will make every effort to ensure any complainant, or accused, is protected from any actions of harassment or abuse during the investigative and hearing processes outlined above. If such action does occur it should be reported to the appropriate official as indicated previously.

Unless specifically addressed in this document, this policy does not supersede any existing provisions of the Faculty Handbook or administrative polices of Centenary College.

Sexual Harassment statutes developed out of Section 703 of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Campus Organizations and Group General Regulations

Forming a New Organization

A group wishing to form a new organization should follow the application process as stated in the Student Government Association Constitution. If the Student Senate accepts the constitution it is then submitted to the Student Services Committee for approval. Upon approval, the organization is granted a probationary status of one year. At the end of this time, the group should present to the SGA any revisions which they have made in the constitution and a summary of their probationary year. With final approval from the Student Senate and the Student Services Committee, the group becomes a recognized student organization.

Membership

Active membership shall be limited to part-time and full-time students enrolled at Centenary College.

Roster

The president of each organization is responsible for submitting a roster to the Office of Student Life and the Student Government Association each semester. Each president must also provide an annual listing of the officers immediately after their elections. Also, the president must inform the Office of Student Life and SGA any time there is a change in their roster.

Finances

Contracts and assumptions of financial obligations must be approved by an alumni or faculty representative who has been approved by the administration when institutional funds are being dispersed.

Fund Raising Projects

Any fund raising project held on campus by a student organization must be approved by the Dean of Student Life, Vice-President of Finance and Administration and Vice-President for Development.

Place

Each organization may select whatever site desired for social functions with the following provisions:

The sponsoring organization — not Centenary College — is totally responsible for all activities held off campus.

The host organization is responsible for, and liable for, the conduct or happenings at off-campus events. Liability is the sole responsibility of the sponsoring organization.

Guests

Non-student guests may be invited by permission of the sponsoring organization. The organization assumes responsibility for the conduct of all guests.

- One monitor for every 50 guests is advised.
- Monitors should be older members (preferably officers) of all participating organizations that will serve as general monitors or as service monitors working at the service distribution center.
- Specialty clothing may be worn by the monitors to set them apart from the rest of the partygoers or a sign at the alcohol distribution center listing the names of the monitors for the event must be posted.

- No other location, especially members' rooms, can be used for the distribution of alcoholic beverages.
- The holding tank, which serves as a cooling area for the alcohol brought to the function by members and guests, is as simple as a large rubber trash can filled with ice.
- Non-alcoholic beverages are to be presented in an attractive and accessible manner...they must also be free to anyone who desires an alcohol-free beverage.
- Anyone, who wishes to acquire an alcoholic beverage that she or he has brought to the event, must present the punch-card, show the wristband and stamp, and return an empty can if this is not the first request.

ARTICLE III. Centenary Student Organizations

A. Purpose

   The purpose of this article is to allow students at Centenary College to determine the status of student organizations. In addition, communication between student organizations will be increased through the medium of the Intra-Organizational Committee.

B. Organizations with "Chartered" Status

   "Chartered" status is designed for organizations seeking the receipt of the full range of privileges offered by the Centenary SGA. To obtain chartered status and full organizational privileges, an organization must first be approved by the Student Senate by the following process.

   1. Approval Process

      a. Application

         For an organization to be considered for chartered status, it must first submit to the Vice-President of External Affairs of the SGA: an application including a statement of purpose outlining the general intent of the organization, a copy of the organizations constitution, a petition containing twenty-five current Centenary student signatures acknowledging their support of the organization and its statement of purpose, and a current list of the organization's officers, faculty advisor(s) (if any) with their corresponding phone and box numbers.

b. Approval Process

For an organization to receive chartered status, the organization's application materials must be approved by a majority vote of the quorum of the senate. If chartered status is denied by the senate, the organization may request a vote of the student body; chartered approval will then be determined by an affirmative majority vote. If the organization is denied charted status by both the senate and the student body, it may reapply for chartered status as early as the next semester.

2. Privileges

Privileges of chartered organizations include a voting seat on the Intra-Organizational Committee, campus posting, use of campus facilities, listing in Centenary publications, and eligibility to apply for SGA funding.

3. Responsibilities

a. Participation

To remain eligible for chartered status, the organization must have an active representative serving on the Intra- Organizational Committee as stipulated in the Senate By-Laws and continue to follow the senate-approved statement of purpose of the organization.

b. Semester Reports

Chartered organizations must also submit a semester report to the External Vice-President of the SGA by the date set by that person. This report will include changes and updates in the organization's constitution and officer/ sponsor roster and detailed information on activities which received SGA funding. Any changes to the statement of purpose will warrant the submission of a new application for chartered status.

4. Probationary Status

A chartered organization may be placed on probationary status for one or both of the following reasons: lack of sufficient representation on the Intra-Organizational Committee as outlined in the Senate By-Laws during the course of a semester, or failing to submit a semester report to the SGA Vice-President of External Affairs. If the organization in question is found to have violated the responsibilities of its chartered status by a two-thirds vote of a quorum of the senate, the chartered organization will be placed on probationary status for the following semester, which includes loss of access to SGA funding privileges.

5. Dismissal of a Chartered Organization

Any chartered organization in violation of the aforementioned responsibilities of its organization's status, as determined by the senate, for two consecutive semesters will lose chartered status and may only reapply following the new chartered organization approval process. However, the organization may appeal the decision through the process stated below.

6. Appeals Process for Chartered Organizations

   Any organization can appeal the loss of its chartered status by notifying the SGA Vice-President of External Affairs of the decision to appeal. The Senate will then put an election before the student body, accompanied by the alleged violations and the organization's rebuttal. Upon a majority affirmative vote of the student body, the organization shall be reinstated as a chartered organization. If the organization fails to appeal, or does not receive the required majority vote, it may still obtain chartered status by following the new chartered organization approval process as early as the next semester.

C. Organizations with "Listed" Status

"Listed" status is designed to allow non-chartered organizations to be recognized on the Centenary College campus. To obtain "listed" status and certain privileges thereof, an organization must first meet specific criteria.

1. Criteria

   For an organization to receive listed status, it must submit to the Vice-President of External Affairs of the SGA: an application including a statement of purpose outlining the general intent of the organization, a copy of the organizations constitution, a petition containing twenty-five current Centenary Student signatures acknowledging their support of the organization and its statement of purpose, and a current list of the organization's officers, faculty advisor(s) (if any), with their corresponding phone and box numbers.

2. Privileges

   Privileges of listed organizations include a non-voting membership on the Intra-Organization Committee, campus posting, use of campus facilities, and listing in Centenary publications.

   Listed organizations must also submit an annual report to the External Vice-President of the SGA by the date set by that person. This report will include changes and updates in the organization's constitution and officer/s/sponsor roster. Any changes to the statement of purpose will warrant the submission of a new application for listed status.

4. Loss of Listed Status

   Loss of listed status will occur if the organization fails to follow the aforementioned guidelines as decided by a two-thirds vote of a quorum of the senate. An organization may reapply for listed status as early as the next semester.

Section Two. Cheating on Papers

The following constitute cheating on papers:

1. Plagiarism, which is defined as borrowing phrases, ideas, or other material (e.g., maps and charts) from any source without giving adequate credit;
2. Having papers proofread, or edited, by anyone other than the author, unless specifically authorized by the instructor; or
3. Submitting any work which has been submitted for credit in another course without permission. For courses during the same semester, permission from both instructors is required.

Section Three: Failure to Adhere to Specific Requirements of Professors

Students are responsible for finding out a professor's requirements for examinations, papers, written homework, lab reports, tutoring, and all other work, and how these requirements are governed by the Honor Code. Failure to adhere to these requirements is a violation of the Honor Code.

Clarifications and Exceptions:

1. On papers professors may,
   a. grant that a paper be proofread by parties other than the author;
   b. prescribe limitations on the sources to be used;
   c. make special stipulations concerning crediting of sources;
   d. grant permission to any student to submit any work which they have, or another student has, submitted for credit in any other course; and/or
   e. prohibit the use of computer programs which check spelling and grammar.
2. On written homework and laboratory reports, Students may:
   a. work together provided that each member of the group understands the work being done, and the instructor has authorized this procedure; and/or
   b. report their individual data as observed in their experiment.
3. On written homework and laboratory reports, Professors may:
   a. require that all or part of the assignment be done by each student individually; and/or
   b. require that secondary sources consulted be credited.
4. Tutoring

   Students must find out from a professor what kind of help may be received from a tutor on assigned work.

Section Four. Failure to Appear

If the accused fails to appear, or fails to submit an adequate excuse to the Court prior to the hearing, they shall receive an Honor Court conviction. If the accuser, or called witness(es) fail to appear, they shall be referred to the Conduct Review Committee for obstruction of proceedings.

ARTICLE VIII. REPORTING A SUSPECTED VIOLATION

Anyone suspecting that a violation of the Honor Code has occurred, shall report this suspicion to either the Chief Justice or one of the Faculty Advisors. All communications with the Honor Court must be written and signed. All communication shall be confidential and known only to the members of the Honor Court, including the name of the accused and the accuser to be kept confidential. The Court shall be pledged to keep all information received confidential.

ARTICLE IX. PROCEDURES

Section One: Preliminary Actions

1. After receiving notice of a suspected Honor Code violation, the Honor Court shall have three (3) regular class days to send written notice of the violation to the accused. A regular class day shall be defined as any day during the Fall or Spring semesters that classes are in session.
2. From the date the notice is sent, the accused shall have at least three (3) regular class days, but no more than five (5), to prepare for the arraignment. The accused has the right to waive the preparation period.
3. During the preparation period a representative for the accused, as requested by the accused, will be appointed by the Chief Justice after notification of the choice of the accused by the Investigating Officer.

Section Two: Preliminary Review

1. The accused shall be called before a closed panel that shall consist of the Chief Justice, the Clerk, the Investigating Officer, a Faculty Advisor, the Accused, and the Representative for the Accused.
2. At this hearing, the Investigating Officer shall present the case to all present. After the case is presented, the Chief Justice shall ask the accused to enter a plea of either NOT GUILTY or GUILTY. In the case of a guilty plea, which is binding, the Chief Justice shall advise the accused of their right to make a statement to the Court.
    a. If the accused wishes to make a statement at that time, the statement shall be tape-recorded by the Clerk to be played before the entire Court during penalty deliberation.
    b. If the accused wishes to make a statement in person to the Court, he/she shall be advised as to when the Court will meet for deliberation. He/she shall make his/her statement before the Honor Court at that time.

In the case of a not guilty plea, the Chief Justice shall set a date for a full hearing to be held.

Section Three: Honor Court Proceedings

1. The Honor Court shall meet at a time and place specified by the Chief Justice. A complete list of witnesses shall be provided to the Court by the Investigating Officer at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the proceedings. The hearing shall be closed and those participating in the hearing, in any capacity, have the responsibility to maintain confidentiality.
2. All students and faculty members shall appear before the Court when requested to do so. The Chief Justice shall determine in what order witnesses shall be called from the witness list.
3. Procedure of the Hearing:
   a. Those present for the entire hearing shall include the counsel for the accused, investigating officer and the voting members of the Honor Court.
   b. The Investigating Officer shall present any new information pertaining to the case and the Chief Justice will then ask if the accused wishes to change the original plea of not guilty. Unless the plea is changed, the hearing will proceed as follows:
      i. witnesses are called by the Chief Justice one at a time
      ii. questioning shall begin with the Investigating Officer, then the representative of the accused, and finally the members of the Court.
      iii. after all witnesses are heard, the Investigating Officer, representative of the accused, and witnesses are excused while the Court deliberates.
      iv. conviction of any student shall always require the vote of four (4) members in favor of conviction.
   c. As soon as a decision is reached, the accused shall be verbally informed of the decision made. The accused shall receive written notice within three (3) regular class days of the decision except under very exceptional circumstances.
4. The Honor Court shall prepare a report of the decisions rendered in the previous semester for publication in The Conglomerate at the start of every semester. In such reports, facts shall be omitted which would lead to the identification of the principal parties involved.

ARTICLE X. PENALTIES

1. For conviction on the first offense, the Honor Court has the option of the following penalties:
   a. no further penalty.
   b. the option to redo the work. Students may redo the work with no grade assessed to the original work. The new work shall be submitted to the professor for a grade. Should the student fail to submit the new work within a time limit agreed upon by the student and the professor, the work shall receive a grade of zero (0).
   c. "F" on the work.
   d. zero (0) on the work.
   e. "F" in the course.
   f. "F" in the course with a recommendation to the Dean of the College for suspension for a semester.

g. "F" in the course with a recommendation to the Dean of the College for dismissal from the College.

The numerical value of the "F" in the above penalties shall be determined by the teacher of the course with the stipulation that the "F" be less than any honestly obtained "F" on the work by any member of the class (or group of classes).

2. Any piece of work on which the Honor Court makes a ruling may not be dropped by a professor.
3. Conviction on subsequent offenses will result in an automatic penalty of "F" in the course and referral to the Provost with a recommendation of dismissal from the College. If the Provost disagrees with the recommendation, the recommendation will be referred to the Conduct Review Committee for further review. A decision by the Conduct Review Committee may be appealed to the President of the College who has final authority.

ARTICLE XI. APPEALS

1. The Chief Justice must advise defendants of their right to appeal and to whom the appeal should be addressed. Only the faculty advisor(s) to the Honor Court may provide guidelines to defendants on the appeal process, the writing of an appeal, or possible outcomes of an appeal.
2. Appeals shall be addressed to the Provost, in written form, within seven (7) regular class days of written notification of conviction by outlining the reason(s) for appeal. If the Provost considers the request justified, the appeal will then be heard by the Conduct Review Committee, and their decision shall be final.

Guidelines For The Honor System

1. ADVANTAGES OF THE HONOR SYSTEM

We of Centenary College are proud of the fact that our students govern their own academic performance through an Honor Code which they helped to write, and which they themselves administer. A national survey has shown that cheating occurs more often on campuses where no joint honor system is in effect and where enforcement of honesty is left up to faculty alone. It occurs least often among students in colleges where both students and faculty participate in a functioning honor system. Our Honor System is a classic example of growing student participation in self-government and responsibility for administrative affairs on campus. The increased freedom it affords gives those who participate in it room to grow in maturity and responsibility and to strengthen qualities of honesty and integrity. Sharing with the student body in the observance and administering of the Honor Code also benefits the College faculty. Faculty and students become partners in striving toward a lofty goal, and their common striving builds an atmosphere of trust and confidence. Faculty members are also relieved of the necessity of filling the distasteful role of policeman. The Centenary College Honor System was developed because the students proposed the idea to the College faculty and asked that the faculty join in writing and administering a workable code. The Code was tried on an experimental basis in some departments of the College in 1953, and soon thereafter the present Honor Code was adopted as binding for all regular students of the College.

2. REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

Basically, the Code provides that a student will neither cheat nor will he/she tolerate cheating on the part of others. If you have registered at Centenary, you have signed a pact which automatically includes you as a part of our Honor System, binding you to its terms and committing you to uphold its principles and its provisions. You have agreed to present work for credit which is wholly and only your own. When exams are given or when you present written work and research papers, no professor or proctor should be required as a policeman to insure that the work is your own, although a teacher may do so in incidents of suspected violation of the Honor Code. Your own personal integrity is your proctor. We administer the Code through a student court composed of five members and two alternates who are chosen from among nominations made by the student body and the faculty. One member is elected to preside as Chief Justice. At least one faculty member serves as advisor and liaison officer. The Constitution of the Honor Court provides that all violations of the Code shall be referred at once to the Court. It also provides for hearings, suitable penalties upon conviction, and appeal of conviction. A conviction before the Honor Court for violation of the Honor Code may result in one of the following penalties: Conviction with further penalty, Honor Court F on the work, Honor Court F in the course, suspension for one semester or permanent expulsion from Centenary. Every student should thoroughly familiarize him/herself with the Honor Court Constitution printed in the preceding section of The Centenary College Student Handbook in order to understand exactly what his/her responsibilities are under the Honor System. If you suspect that a violation of the Honor Code has occurred, it is your obligation to inform a member of the Honor Court of this fact as soon as possible. Names of the members of the Court will be posted in each classroom. If you do not know any of these students, you may send written notice to the Faculty Advisor, Honor Court, through campus mail. The Honor Court Constitution and the Honor Code are printed in full detail in the preceding section which all incoming students are expected to read carefully. The Honor System is also explained to new students during formal orientation each fall.

3. RESEARCH PAPERS AND THE HONOR SYSTEM

Most commonly, violations of the Honor Code concern plagiarism. In the interest of clarification, these guidelines are offered. Plagiarism in any work done under the Honor System is a violation of the Honor Code, and is a serious offense. You will be plagiarizing if (1) you are not accurate in indicating direct quotations from any source, including textbooks, or (2) you do not completely reword when you paraphrase. Rewording includes using your own language and your own sentence structure. A paraphrase should sound like you, not like the source with the words shifted around. Both quotations and paraphrasing require documentation. Any plagiarism, intentional or not, casts doubt on the honesty of all your statements. A Short Guide to Manuscript and Documentation Form, by Allen and Colbrunn, found under 029.6, AL53s, and the MLA Style Sheet, found under 0-29, M72s, are both on permanent reserve in the library for your reference use. These pamphlets, along with the freshman English textbook and this explanation, should indicate what is not proper credit and the correct form for giving credit. Borrowing an author's ideas and putting them into your own words is paraphrasing and requires that credit be given for the ideas by means of a footnote or other clear procedure. Neither quotation marks nor indentation is used for paraphrasing. If you present another person's ideas as your own, by not giving credit, you are plagiarizing. When in doubt, footnote! Borrowing an author's exact words is quoting and also requires a footnote or other clear credit to the source. Quotes must be placed in quotation marks, and if the quote is long, it should also be indented and single spaced. If you quote an author and do not put the quote in quotation marks or indent, your are plagiarizing even if you do give a footnote! You are borrowing not only the author's ideas but are presenting the words as your own. You still are not giving full credit and thus are plagiarizing. Usually, two or more distinctive and sequential words from the source should be placed in quotation marks. Following is a reproduction of part of page 208 of Recent American Literature by Donald Heiney (Great Neck, New York: Barron's Educational Series, 1958). Following this reproduction are examples of three students' use of this reference in research papers. Two of the students, A and B, have given improper credit and therefore are guilty of plagiarism. Student C has given proper credit.

The original passage:

Awarding of the Nobel Prize to Faulkner in 1950 has brought home to the American public the fact that in Europe he is considered the foremost living American author; today many American critics are inclined to agree in this judgement. The distinction is one to which he is well entitled. He is sometimes considered an agrarian naturalist in the manner of Erskine Caldwell; actually he is more meaningful and profound, as well as more artistically original, than any of the American naturalists with the possible exception of Hemingway. His novels are generally laid in rural settings, but the problems they treat are psychological and moral rather than physical. His great subject is the decline of the South; its economic sterility, its moral disintegration, and its struggle to resist the progressive and materialistic civilization of the North.

Student A's paper:

The awarding of the Nobel Prize to Faulkner in 1950 has brought home to the American public the fact that in Europe he is considered the foremost living American author. His naturalism is sometimes compared to that of Erskine Caldwell. Faulkner's naturalism is illustrated by his use of rural settings in his novels. His great subject is the decline of the South; its economic sterility, its moral disintegration, and its struggle to resist the progressive and materialist civilization of the North.

Student A has plagiarized both ideas and words by presenting them as his own without any footnotes at all. He/she has violated the Honor Code.

Student B's paper:

The awarding of the Nobel Prize to Faulkner in 1950 has brought home to the American public the fact that in Europe he is considered the foremost living American author. His naturalism is sometimes compared to that of Erskine Caldwell. Faulkner's naturalism is illustrated by his use of rural settings in his novels. His great subject is the decline of the South: its economic sterility, its moral disintegration and its struggle to resist the progressive and materialistic civilization of the North.1

1Donald Heiney, Recent American Literature, (Great Neck, New York: Barron's Educational Series, 1958) p. 208.

Student B has given credit for the borrowed ideas by his footnotes, but not for the words, which are also borrowed in places. Although a few words are changed, there are still complete sentences lifted intact from the original work without giving credit for the author's words. Student B also has violated the Honor Code.

Student C's paper:

Faulkner's great talent has made him "the foremost living American author" to European critics. 1The rural settings of many of his novels illustrate his naturalism which is often compared with that of Erskine Caldwell. The central theme of Faulkner's novels is the decline of the South.2

1Donald Heiney, Recent American Literature (Great Neck, New York: Barron's Educational Series, 1958) p. 208>

2Ibid.

Student C has given credit for both the phrase "the foremost living American author" and for the ideas borrowed. He/she has given proper credit.

4. A FINAL REMINDER

If you have any questions, it is your responsibility to ask your professor exactly what he/she requires in a paper that requires research or documentation. Let us remind you that this applies to all full-time and part-time undergraduate students whether in day or night classes.

Campus Services

Academic Counseling

The Advisor is responsible for assisting students in all areas of academic life, such as assisting students with schedules and a degree plan which must be filed no later than the first semester of the junior year in the Office of the Registrar. At the time of admission to the College each student is assigned a faculty advisor who is available for advice in academic matters.

Academic Petitions

The faculty has established a procedure to act on the requests of students for exception to, or waiver of, academic regulations. Your advisor, the registrar or Office of the Provost can assist you. Students may not petition academic suspensions; enrollment for more than 24 hours in any regular semester (12 hours during the summer); more than a total of 18 pass/fail hours; and graduation with less than 124 hours or less than a 2.0 cumulative grade point average overall or in their major(s).

Address Change

It is the responsibility of each enrolled student to provide the College with an up-to-date local and permanent mailing address. An address change that occurs any time after the student completes the registration process for the current semester should be reported to the Office of Student Life and an Address Change Form completed.

Automobiles on Campus/Vehicle Registration

All faculty, staff and students must register their vehicles. Students should register their vehicle at the time that they are registering for their classes. There is a $25.00 fee for resident students and a $10.00 fee for commuters. In order to register a motor vehicle, you will need to present a valid driver's license and the license plate number of your vehicle. Vehicle registration does not guarantee a specific parking place or parking lot. Campus policies and regulations regarding vehicles are specified in the portion of the Student Handbook entitled Parking Policies and Regulations and in the Campus Map and Parking Information pamphlet that an individual receives upon registering his/her vehicle. Members of the Centenary community who need to register a vehicle at times other than class registration or who need a temporary permit should contact the Business Office in Hamilton Hall or the Department of Public Safety at 2910 Centenary Blvd. In order to replace a lost or stolen decal the registrant must go to the Department of Public Safety and file a report. Parking fees and fines should be paid at the Business office.

Campus Convocations

The college has set aside Thursdays from 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon as a time for the entire campus community to gather for special programs and lectures. Periodically, these may be scheduled on Tuesday mornings (President's Convocation) or during the evening (Honors Convocation). On occasions these gatherings are academic convocations resulting in formal processionals by faculty, staff and seniors. Incoming first year students participate in the President's Convocation. Religious programs can also be held during this time period. All students and staff are encouraged to attend. In order to preserve this time for a gathering of the entire campus community, both faculty and Student Senate have designated that no other meetings should be scheduled at this hour unless there is no official College function planned. Additional concerts and lectures are scheduled for other announced times throughout the semester.

Campus Facilities

All facilities and equipment must be reserved through the Facilities Coordinator. Requests are subject to availability and are processed on a first-come-first served basis. If the desired facility is not available the Facilities Coordinator will work with you to select an alternate location. Requests should be made at least one week prior to the event. If any changes need to be made to a prior facilities request, contact the Facilities Coordinator for revisions. Events scheduled by the Thursday a week prior to the event will be included in the "Weekly Schedule of Events." Any request for use of a facility or equipment, which provides less than 48-hour response time from the Facilities Coordinator or Facilities Services, is subject to the scheduling and availability of personnel who handle those responses. The Facilities Coordinator's Office can be reached at 5015.

Career Center

Located at the Center for Extended Learning, 2910 Centenary Blvd., the Career Center offers a variety of opportunities for students and alumni. The Career Center contains a career library with books, magazines, pamphlets, tapes, and videos containing information on all aspects of career development from selecting a major to plotting a job search. Graduate studies information, including fellowship and scholarship opportunities, can be obtained at the Center. Career interest testing is available. SIGI PLUS, an interactive computer program, is available as an aid in examining values, interests, skills, selecting pathways, and searching for graduate schools. Part-time and full-time job information is also available at the Center.

Centenary College Store

The College Bookstore, located in the basement of the Student Union Building, has a variety of items ranging from textbooks and supplies to novelty items and educationally priced computer software. Any book in print may be special ordered with a $3.00 or more non-refundable fee for shipping. Personal checks up to $25.00 can be cashed with proper I.D. at no charge. Other services offered by the College Store are faxes being sent and received for $1.00 per page and sending packages by UPS. The College Store will accept VISA, American Express, MasterCard and Discover cards. Hours: 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., Monday-Friday, and extended hours during RUSH and special events as posted.

Chaplain Of The College

The Chaplain of the College serves as a minister to the Centenary community: Opportunities to visit with students, staff and faculty are welcomed. Several programs, such as weekly campus worship services, weekly Bible studies and individual spiritual direction are offered through this office. In addition, for those seeking a church to affiliate with in this area the chaplain will be glad to make suggestions. For more information or to speak with the Chaplain call 869-5156.

Commencement Material

The use of cords and tassels by academic departments, in addition to those issues to recognize academic honors, will be permitted. Cords and tassels utilized will be provided by the department in recognition of those receiving departmental honors or belonging to the honor society of that department. In addition, each department will be responsible for issuing the tassels or cords prior to commencement.

Computer Lab Use

Please read Computer Use Policy under Community Standards Section for details.

Counseling Services

Personal counseling is available from the Counseling Center located in 2910 Centenary and from the Chaplain 869-5156. The Counseling Center provides this service free of charge to all enrolled students. Confidentiality is strictly maintained. In case of an after hours emergency please contact a Resident Assistant, Area Coordinator or Public Safety 869-5000. These staff members will facilitate contact with the Counselor.

Department of Public Safety

The goal of the Centenary College Department of Public Safety is to provide a safe environment so that the College can fulfill its educational mission. In order to accomplish this goal the Department of Public Safety (DPS) employs both College Police Officers and security officers. The College Police officers have successfully completed a Basic Law Enforcement Training Academy and have been commissioned by the State of Louisiana. These officers have the same law enforcement powers, authority and responsibilities as a state/city police officer or sheriff's deputy including the power of arrest. The Department of Public Safety has staff on duty 24 hours a day every day of the year. DPS officers engage in around the clock patrols of the campus including the residence halls, Greek Houses, contiguous streets and parking lots. The Department of Public Safety is responsible for providing the college community with access to facilities. Requests to use campus facilities should be directed to the Facility Coordinator, at the Facility Services office, who will in turn provide the Department of Public Safety with a facility use schedule. The Department of Public Safety is also responsible for enforcing parking regulations and other campus rules. DPS officers respond to crimes in progress, emergencies and to simply investigate incidents of suspicious behavior. They also write offense and traffic accident reports. The Department of Public Safety has proactive policies, which are geared to preventing crimes before they occur. The Department attempts to keep the college community apprised of ongoing criminal activity in the campus area or emergencies that may affect them via informational bulletins over e-mail. There is a student patrol program that provides members of the college community with an escort across campus 24 hours a day. DPS officers are available to participate in educational programs regarding alcohol, drugs or sexual assault.

The Department of Public Safety Office is located in Building 2910 on Centenary Blvd. directly across from Meadows Museum. Students, faculty and staff are encouraged to immediately report any unusual incidents, suspicious people, crimes or emergencies to the Department by dialing 5000 from an on-campus phone or 869-5000 on an off campus phone. DPS officers carry portable radios with telephone capability, which enable them to directly answer the 869-5000 phone line from anywhere on campus. The College also maintains a hands-free emergency campus telephone system. There are emergency phones located at the main entrance to each residence hall. Additional emergency phones are located at the north entrance to Hardin Hall, by the south entrance to the Hurley School of Music, on the SUB patio and near Lot 6 (at the south entrance to the Smith Building). The Department of Public Safety has a good relationship with the other law enforcement agencies in the area and is available to assist students in reporting crimes that occurred outside the campus jurisdiction to the appropriate agency.

Dining Services

Centenary Dining is presented to you by Sodexho Marriott Services. All students who live in the residence halls or Greek houses are required to purchase a meal plan. This year there is an option of an eleven meal plan with $150.00 in flex money or a sixteen-meal plan with $200.00 in flex money. Commuting students may choose either of these plans or opt for the DCB (declining balance) plan. Flex $ may be used in our newly remodeled Juke Box Cafe which will be open from 10:00 a.m. 'til 12:00 p.m. The Dining Hall will close between meals and late night has been moved to the Juke Box. To gain admittance to the dining hall you must scan your meal card. Meal cards are not transferable. You may not remove food or other items from the dining hall unless you show proof of a work schedule for the use of to-go trays. Students who require special dietary needs under the care of a physician may present their prescribed menus to the Food Service Director. If the prescribed meals cannot be provided the student may request alternate arrangements through the Dean of Student Life. Dining hall is open for brunch and dinner only during the weekend. The dining hall will provide a variety of snack items for resident students during exam week. As a matter of courtesy for your fellow students, clearing your tray and garbage is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions please call the Dining Hall at 869-5283.

Financial Aid

Scholarships, grants, and all federal aid programs are administered by the Director of Financial Aid. Students are encouraged to visit the Office of Financial Aid if they have any concerns or problems with their awards. Veterans' benefits are administered by the V.A. Representative in the Office of Financial Aid. The Anna Ruth Nuttall Small Loan Fund is available for students in most cases. This fund was established by the family and friends of the late Dr. Anna Ruth, Assistant Professor of Bible and English at the college until her death in 1952. Students should apply to the Business Office. Ordinarily the amount loaned will be a maximum of $25.00. Loans are payable within fifteen days. Special provisions permit College authorities to lend larger sums from the fund when an emergency arises.

ID Cards

ID cards, issued at the time of registration to all new students, are non-transferable and if found in the possession of a person other than the owner, the card will be confiscated. The first ID card is free; replacements are $10.00. When a student graduates or leaves for any other reason, the card must be turned in to the Business Office. Transcripts can be held if the card is not returned. All students are required to have a valid student ID card. ID cards are made during registration for all new students and for returning students that need a replacement ID. Benefits of an ID card: Students may go to all home athletic events free, by showing their ID. Students, faculty, staff & their spouses are eligible to participate in the intramural program as long as they pay their team entrance fees. Students receive one theater play ticket during the run of a show by showing their ID.

Library

The Magale Library of Centenary College offers a variety of modern facilities and services which make it the information and study "hang out" center of the campus. The Library is open a total of 94 hours each semester, during the seven day week. The total collection, approximately 170,000 books and periodicals is used for class work, personal research, and general interest reading. The collection is arranged in open shelves according to the Dewey Decimal/Library of Congress Classification Systems. The library has a seating capacity of over 400 spread throughout the building.
